

Where everyday life comes together: Discover Zoe's kitchen story

We recently caught up with our client Zoe, who shared her experience of designing her dream kitchen with Ashford.

From her very first visit to our showroom to living in her new space today, Zoe always felt supported and reassured that she was in safe hands.

Discover the full transformation above - the journey truly speaks for itself!

"We were just really impressed with everything"

Support that fits around family life

With a little one at home and limited time, Zoe needed the process to feel smooth and stress-free - and that's exactly what she experienced.

Our team took the time to visit Zoe's home and understand how she used the space and what she wanted to achieve.

"It's officially my favourite room in the house."

A kitchen that's become the heart of the home

Zoe's new kitchen isn't just beautifully designed, it's a space her family genuinely lives in.

She tells us, "I do my work in here, I cook in here, my baby plays on the floor in here... whenever friends and family are around, we always end up in the kitchen. It's the magnet of the house."

Getting the right design and finish meant everything for Zoe and she's delighted with how seamlessly it fits into everyday life.
