Tap into something smarter: The kitchen upgrade you didn't know you needed

Quooker taps have become a must-have in modern kitchens, but they've evolved beyond just boiling water.

With the Quooker CUBE, your tap becomes a complete water system, designed for how we live now.

Everyday refreshment, made effortless

From a quick glass of ice-cold water to fresh, fruit-infused drinks, everything you need is right there at the tap.

Sparkling water, instantly

From midweek dinners to weekend hosting, having sparkling water on demand is one of those small luxuries that quickly becomes the norm.

No bottles, no extra appliances, just simple, everyday ease.

Easy to add, hard to live without

If you're already ordering a Quooker, or have one on the way, it's the perfect time to include the CUBE. It's a simple addition now that you'll use every day once it's in place.

Our summer offer!

For a limited time, you can add the Quooker CUBE for £849 (usually £1,250), a saving of £401.

Available when purchasing with a Flex or Fusion tap and PRO3 tank.
