

Discover our beautiful new In-Frame Kitchen Display

We're excited to unveil our latest showroom display, showcasing the timeless beauty and craftsmanship of an in-frame kitchen.

Designed to combine classic British cabinetry with modern functionality, this stunning display highlights why in-frame kitchens remain one of the most sought-after choices for homeowners looking for a truly bespoke feel.

Crafted the traditional way

In-frame kitchens feature doors that sit neatly within a visible hardwood frame, creating the beauty of handcrafted furniture.

This traditional construction not only offers exceptional character and elegance but also provides outstanding durability, helping doors remain perfectly aligned for years to come.

Traditional character with modern innovation

Our newest display captures the charm of a classic butt-hinged kitchen while incorporating the precision and soft-close performance of modern concealed hinges, delivering the best of both worlds.

Designed around everyday living

This display also showcases beautifully crafted hardwood shaker doors, solid oak dovetailed drawers, a hidden end-grain butcher's block.

Additionally, there is a cleverly concealed drinks cabinet that can double as an appliance pantry, demonstrating how an in-frame kitchen can be both elegant and highly practical.

See it for yourself!

Available in a wide range of painted finishes, an in-frame kitchen can be tailored to suit both classic country homes and contemporary family spaces.

Visit our Farnham Common showroom to explore the display for yourself and discover how an in-frame kitchen can bring timeless style and exceptional craftsmanship to your home.
